Oh no oh no, well I don't know
Oh yes, oh yes it's so easy
Butt naked on a train our thoughtlessness
I often hit the crossroads
Me and all my stream of consciousness, all those Get the businessmen out they offices
Artifices in the air, artistry is in despair
Sicker than an AIDS patient having chemotherapy
Than a cardiac arrest, cardiac is the best drink
To make you think your sick when you only got the sniffles
If and when you hear a record do you give a little?
The industry doesn't want you educated;
They'd rather have a hit and a fashion statement Fashions, they seem to be the only way to reach the youth today
So shut up as I speak (shut up kid)

This is my hook,
This is my course
This is my hit
It's better than yours

This is my hook
This is my course
This is my hit
It's better than yours

Music, abusic, mu-mu-music, it's abu-bu-busic
It's abusive; it's a hook
A catchy beat and a look,
A genre, the desire for a minute while you're took There's Britney, Christina, Mandy, N*SYNC
Backstreet, Ninety Degrees, it make's you think
Maybe I'm the next Eminem
And I'm a wanna put a song about my Mama on the radio with Kyprios
And sell a funk ya, duck out and get paid
Go mainstream, do what's been done taken again
No, I ain't going out like that, see
I gotta be original, and an individual
Critical time to use the inner most eye,

They got the money and the criminal mind

This is my hook
This is my course
This is my hit
It's better than yours
(Shut up kid)

This is my hook
This is my course
This is my hit
It's better than yours

Freestyle, full of just got, just got, organized confusion
Rock star movements, Swollen Members, Living
Legends, Sweatshop Union
Daylight soul, common sense, try for what's, crash cruise, cheval,
Some party chaos and the rest of those don't doers that don't take pay offs
What happened to Kaierus once philosophy?
When did hip hop become hip hocracy?
Consuming flocking sheep that's society
We need to change our medeor immediately
Then greet that shallow word, swallow what you heard
Who's leading the leaders, who's following followers
The world is a pitch for commercializing
My thoughts ain't a pitch for commercial advertising
Sky is falling the earth is erupting
Don't believe everything you hear, kid, trust me
Analyze
Gotta question, ask it
Or be a market pitch for a specific demographic Fourteen and a girl, you're the number one target in the world
Question even me, gonna believe a catch or hook
Have I got substance? I dunno take a look

This is my hook
This is my course
This is my hit
It's better than yours
(Shut up kid)

This is my hook
This is my course
This is my hit
It's better than yours
