Don't try to take me away
Like I can't live without you
Today, makin' love tomorrow
Some way, swooping your so fragile
Died today, you disgraced the mortal

Fight me lately, tried to someone
We've been laughing since you've been gone
And I want to know, did you all enjoy the show?
It's so sad to see you go

And you know, you're my home
Alone, always on his own

Hangin' low today, I replace the highway
Love the only way, linking hands the wrong way
So unfair to see you go
It's so sad to see you go
I just thought I'd let you know

And you know, you're my home
Alone, always on his own
