

L'ame Immortelle "Slut"

Misled children
Tortured souls
Masochistic need
A bell tolls

For those who feel
Nothing inside
No love, no hate
No stars shine bright

Raped by life
They give their pride
And will end up
With no one at their side

You're just a slut with no honour and no pride
You're just a slut, and it is time for you to finally confide
You are a slut you are alone,
You will die here on your own
You are a slut you ran astray
And you've thrown your life away

Loneliness your destination
No helping hand and no salvation
For those who do not know
The meaning of feelings

I turn away
And you don't care
There'll be another one waiting
In the city square
