World is turning still, it always will
I could get my fill, but something went wrong
I needed a reason, but where did it go
A change in the season when you came along

I took a ride with her one way ticket to love

And then she took me, it wasn't the same
Living is easy, life is a game
Both of us leading a life of despair
Searching for heaven, it wasn't there

So I took a ride with her one way ticket to love
Spinning my wheels around, I couldn't get enough
No destination, she's the girl I've been dreaming of
I took a ride with her one way ticket to love

I took a ride with her one way ticket to love

Now I'm breaking stones, slamming doors
Breakin' me, breakin' me, breakin' me

One way ticket to love

One way ticket to love

One way ticket, One way ticket to love
(Oh, whoa, oh, oh)

Spinning my wheels

One way ticket, one way ticket to love
(round and round and round I go)

Spinning my wheels

One way ticket, one way ticket to love
(round and round and round I go)

Ticket to love
