Sometimes I think it's all been a dream people I've met places I've seen lover who've sailed through my arms and my bed footprints of angels where devil's won't tread

And it really makes me smile when I turn back the years cherish the laughter remember the tears the man I am now is not the man I was then as time goes by I'll tell you my friend

That I'm drunk right now and I need a cigarette I wish I know some way to forget
if I'm bound for hell 'cos of the shape I'm in I don't have regrets I won't change a thing

Why ain't I bleeding 'cos I feel so much pain why ain't I bleeding some things never change

Hard times and many a tear I needed some shelter rats in the cellar screams in my head I look in the mirror I look like I'm dead I was a king of the road rhythm and blues starry-eyed losers drawn in tattoo's and the man I am now is not the man I was then as time goes by I tell you my friend

That I'm drunk right now and I need
a cigarette I wish I know some
if I'm bound for hell 'cos of the
shape I'm in I don't have regrets
I won't change a thing

Why ain't I bleeding 'cos I feel so much pain
