Right now I'm broke
And changed again
And seal up my twenty cuts
Can I wash them away
Can I reveal my soul NOW!!
So I'll help my self up
To control my shifty shame
It cannot change
It hides in my body between all broken bones

I dig to find
I don't want to brake again
In this world I'm so like you
We all been hurt We all been sorry
Now I brake again

This night I can't sleep
I'll cut up my filthy bones
It cannot beg
A seed of my rotten bones to burn down

I dig to find
I don't need to brake again
In this world I'm so like you
We all been hurt We all been sorry
Now I brake again

Now I brake again

I don't need to brake again
In this world I'm so like you
We all been hurt We all been sorry
Now I brake again

I don't' need to brake again (2x)
I'm so like you
I don't need to brake again
In this world
