Right now I'm broke
I changed again
And sealing my sixty cuts
Can I wash them away
Can I reveal my soul NOW!!
So I'll help my self up
To control my shifty shame
It cannot Change
It hide in my body between all broken bones

I dig to find
I don't need to get hurt again
In this world I'm so like you
We have been hurt We have been sorry
Now I'm broken

This night I can't sleep
I'll cut up my filthy bones
It cannot beg
A seed of my rotten bones to burn down

I dig to find
I don't need to get hurt again
In this world I'm so like you
We have been hurt We have been sorry
Now I'm broken

I'm broken

I don't need to hurt again
In this world I'm so like you
We have been hurt We have been sorry
Now I'm broken

I don't need to brake again (2X)
I'm so like you
I don't't need to get hurt again
In this world
