How many days have you lived
That you can't remember anything about?
How many conversations have you had
That you could do without?

How many times have you been sad
And no one knows?
Maybe what they say is true
We all end up alone

I wanna believe that none of this is true
I wanna believe like I do, when I'm with you
You give me change of scenery when I don't like the view
I wanna believe like I do, when I'm with you

There's not too many people to look up to in this world
I had to find out for myself, it's hard to be a girl
It's just small minds and money that constitute this game
They dictate what is beautiful and that's a goddamn shame

I wanna believe that none of this is true
I wanna believe like I do, when I'm with you
You give me change of scenery when I don't like the
I wanna believe like I do, when I'm with you

The world is turning so fast
I wonder how I'm gonna last Because I'm fading away

All of this injustice and no one can keep track
You can never let your guard down baby, always watch your back
There's so much in this life that I will never understand
And nothing ever turns out like you planned

I wanna believe that none of this is true
I wanna believe like I do, when I'm with you
You give me change of scenery when I don't like the

I wanna believe like I do, when I'm with you
