Liars, losers, coming at me
What I need is sanctuary
Minding my own business
Getting in my face
Violating my personal space

Freak magnet
Jerk appeal

Something about you
Is so not right
Nightmare, nightmare
In the daylight
Asking for my number
You wanna give me a call
But I've got your message
Written on the wall

Freak magnet
Jerk appeal

Always bugging me
Why don't you get a clue
'cause I don't want to Talk to you
I know that look in your eye
I've seen it before
I've given you all of my change
But you want something more

Freak magnet
Jerk appeal
