(Johnny Duncan)

Tonight here in your arms is where I've longed to be To feel you close and warm is heaven next to me You'll never know how many times I pictured us this way
But let's not waste tonight with words tomorrow's far away.

So darlin' think of me every now and then
And when you feel the need for love well you know where I am
And let this fire that burns tonight light your way to me again
And darlin' think of me every now and then.

Your lips are sweet and warm like I always knew they'd be
But desire was just a word till tonight when you touched me
And if one night of love with you is all I ever spend Right now just hold me close you know you've always got a friend.

And when you feel the need for love well you know
where I am
And let this fire that burns tonight light your way to me
again
And darlin' think of me every now and then.

And darlin' think of me every now and then...
