I'm having daydreams about night things in the middle of the afternoon
And while my hands make a living my mind's home loving you
I'm having daydreams about night things in the middle of the afternoon
And every night you make my dreams come true

Now all day long while I'm workin' in town time slows down to a crawl When I'm not thinkin' about you well I'm checkin' the clock on the wall Then it's goodbye factory and hello love and there's a smile across my face Cause I'm back in the arms of your sweet love where my thought have been all day So I'm having daydreams...
[harmonica]
I'm having daydreams...
