Yes I keep singin' a song about love hummin' a tune about happiness Winkin' my eye at the sun up above and just singin' a song about love

I don't have no acts to drive no bridges to be burned
There's better ways to go through life and the best way
I have learned Whenever troubles cross my mind I think about your love
And then a smile upon my face just shows what I'm thinking of
And I start singin' a song..
[ guitar ]
When other people talk to me they just don't understand
Just what it is that's happen now that made me a happy man
It's not a fortune I have found it's something you can't see
It isn't gold it's just a love between my woman and me
So I keep singin' a song...
So I keep singin' a song...
