You snap your fingers and just like that I'm back in your hands

I cried a river washin' your mem'ry away

And I finally made it at least till you phoned me today

And I nearly hung up but teardrops destroyed my plan

You snap your fingers and just like that I'm back in your hands

You snap your fingers and just like that I'm back in your hands

Startin' all over right back where I've always been

And I'm just beginnin' to learn some things never end

You snap your fingers and just like that I'm back in your hands

[ steel ]

And I'm just beginnin'...

You snap your fingers and just like that I'm back in your hands
