"Don't Let The Rain"

All was so smooth and all was so easy, and people
dancing, under the sun.
The skies were blue, the weekend of fun, but then it happened, run boys run.
The riots grew wilder and someone cried "Fire!"
Time was up as the ???? grew higher. Take what your get and get out of here boys,
Ooo, they came from nowhere, running with fire.
Ohh, run boys run. Ohh run boys run.

Don't let the rain fall on my head
Don't let the rain fall on my head
Don't let the rain fall on my head
Don't let the rain fall on my head

Don't let the rain hey la la la
Don't let the rain hey la la la

All was so smooth and all was so easy, and people
dancing and under the sun.
The sky was blue, the weekend of fun, Ohh, but then it
happened, run boys run.
Ohhh, run boys run. Ohhh, run boys run.

Don't let the rain, don't let the rain, don't let it don't let it...
