i think we had something true
i think we had something true and it's all lies a-a-a-all lies huh
and the plot begins see i'm a little too far in star in me and you the main attraction from the preview i should've stopped then i should've stopped when it was textin' just lovers with no name but then i locked you in pick say, face flashing on my screen so naive, in a way i'm exactly what drama means (drama means)
stop the folks from rockin i see sickness and this game you're playing blocking all the roles to fix this nice lawn, just laying, 4 a.m. telling me you're gonna stay in but she got nothing i ain't giving you i keep saying "fuck you" but then you fuck me i want to fucking forgiving you i'm through not another night

no more pretending
no more cliffhangers i need a happy ending i need a part two i played my part too we food a flesh so in love before i thought it trough good bitch, cool intentions ready to call her, email her pop and mentions so gone for you, i been watching her tweets she at and your kissy faces while i'm watching our sheets

damn you just left for promises and breaking it off lies i believe so clothes, i'm taking 'em off i know the truth hurts, deception flies through me and so i know it's real, just lies if i say i ain't fucking nigger ,just say you ain't fucking bitches

(but it's false )

na na na na

i said you're always coming home

and you say you won't go trough my phone

[maino]

look, i can read the signs but i'm scared to call it got a feeling in my gut, i already know it trying to ignore it but he feeling's getting worse cause you're moving kind of funny ,now you got me on alert

uh!

claiming at this love, and this a happy home but you went into the bathroom just to use the phone hoping that i'm wrong, knowing that i'm right cause all the signs sayin' you're fucking with a nigger, right?(right)

like you ain't seen me calling you the other night like i ain't noticed lately you've been missing half the night

(aw man)

you're playing with me bitch, you won't drive me mad i ain't playing with you bitch, who brought this pain it's the feeling in my soul that i can't avoid sayin' you cheatin' on me you say i'm paranoid

you sent me what they do i don't wanna fuck with you

(nah)

then i fuck you, than i end up being stuck with you

(oh)

tell me that you love me look me in the eye

(look)

playing that is true but you know it's probably lies

(damn)

my homies keep on saying i should live low but i'm looking for a spot that i can live low caught in my emotions how it come to this (how) got me searching trough your stuff like i'm the bitch up and down, all around, roller-coaster i know it's over, i guess i wanted closure

bitches

i think we had something true and it's all lies

(but it's false)

i think we had something true and it's all lies

bitches

(but it's false)
