God, as we walk this world

We want to be a sign

Our prayers flow into love

Giving Your life

Broken but singing

Our hearts keep shining

Let my life shine, come and let my heart shine

As we walk the world, we lift the bread and wine

Like the stars shine, come and let our hearts shine

In a dark world, we lift the bread and wine

And we were born for this

Born for this day and time

Our prayers flow into love

Giving our lives
