Oh Nancy why'd you have to go and hurt yourself again
Why do you believe you've got to share in every body's pain
Oh heart of gold your always cryin someone else's tears
And tryin to protect the world and chase away its fears

Oh Nancy can't you see that you can't put the whole world right
It's not up to you to tuck life's difference to bed each night
I wish you could some how learn to take as well as give Your so busy mendin other lives when you got your own to live (lure)

You answer every SOS no pause or hesitation
I've seen my tired angel take on every situation
There's so much pain inside those eyes of blue
Oh Nancy I'm so in love with you

Oh Nancy your so full of love And all I wants a part
Just a little place all to myself inside that great big heart
You never seem to realize that I'm unhappy to But unlike the rest to put me right all I ever need is you
You answer every SOS no pause or hesitation
I've seen my tired angel take on every situation
There's so much pain inside those eyes of blue
Oh Nancy I'm so in love with you
