Take love from a boy take love from a girl and you might as well take away the world We're living to love and dissociety two minus one equals one one lonesome me Wrapped in your arms gave me strenght of a king
And all of the warm things two arms can bring Two equals two then one should leave That makes two minus one equal one one lonesome me [ guitar ]
With your lips on mine I had reason to live And knowing your wants makes me willing to give
But I never dreamed you'd want to be free Now two minus one equals one one lonesome me Wrapped in your arms...
