I cover myself in water
The pearls are good for me
Staying resting on the seaside, resting
The air is good to breathe
Clear sky, clear from trouble
This day's meant for me
This day's mine without worries

Four o'clock in the morning, walking
Singing songs meant just for me
And the full moon lights the night
Pale jungle comes to life
By the shooting star I wish
This to last forever on
At a shooting star I wish
This to last forever on

Hey sister, won't you count on me
I will never leave until the day I do
Hey sister, come along with me
I will never leave until the day I do

In the morning breeze, still walking
Here's another day
In the boiling midday sun
I hide in the shades to get some rest
And the taste of you and vodka
Still here since yesterday
Human salt, seasalt in good mixture
Making out, making love tonight

Four o'clock in the morning, walking
Singing songs meant just for you
And the full moon lights the night
Your pale eyes comes to life
By the shooting star we wish
This to last forever on
At a shooting star we wish
This to last forever on

Hey sister, won't you count on me

I will never leave until the day I do
Hey sister, come along with me
There's so much to see, I'll show you all
Hey sister, won't you come with me
There's so much to see, I'll show you all
Hey sister, won't you count on me
I will never leave until the day I
Do, you defeated decease, memories ain't bad.
