She may be your woman,
but your woman comes to see me every night
She may be your woman,
You know when she comes rollin' in around 3 o'clock, in the mornin',
you can only wonder where has your woman been

Hello baby, mama I just had to call you up on the telephone
Hello baby, mama I just had to call you up on the telephone
Thinkin' about ya' all the time, woman I just can't wait to get ya' all alone

She may be your woman,
but your woman sure comes to see me sometime
She may be your woman,
You know when she's at home sittin' there lookin', right at you,
my good lovin's what's on your woman's mind

If you happen to see me comin', better keep your woman right by your side Yeah, if you happen to see me comin',
better keep your woman right by your side
'Cause if your woman flag my train, I sure got to let your woman ride
