It's a healing force.
It's our guiding light.
It's the flood of hope
That we've been waiting fore.

It's a healing force.
Like a spine it goes
Through our weaker parts
That we are learning on.

This is where we put our trust.
Where we live our dreams
And where we make believe.
This is real.
This is life for real, oh yeah.

It's a healing force.
We're alone off course.
Just the two off us
And tha violent touch
Of lust that connects us,
That different us.

This is where we put our trust.
Where we live our dreams
And where we make believe.
This is real.
This is life for real, oh yeah.

Angel,
I need company
On my way down to hell.
