Trough my hazy half year I was too busy too feel Tought I had everything a man could need
I try to sort things out, read numbers in lines
But when I try to explain, it all sounds insane
Never thought that I would be struck by jealousy
But no I am, and it's black and it's killing me

Stay tuned to my love, it's never gonna end, it's never
gonna end
Stay tuned to my love, it's never gonna end, it's never
gonna end

Love love love love
So simple so hard
Love love love love
It was simple now it is hard

I try to sort things out read numbers in lines
But when I try to explain, it all sounds insane
Never thought that I would be struck by jealousy
But no I am, and it's black and it's killing me

Stay tuned to my love, it's never gonna end, it's never
gonna end
Stay tuned to my love, it's never gonna end, it's never
gonna end

It is the worst case scenario that we've been going trough Worse than anything that I can relate to

Never thought that I would be struck by jealousy
But no I am, and it's black and it's killing me

Stay tuned to my love, it's never gonna end, it's never
gonna end
Stay tuned to my love, it's never gonna end, it's never
gonna end
