The simple things aint easy no more
The simple words are worst
Still I can see it in your eyes
The love that was burning is burned up

The little aint no funny no more
The little is too much
You close your eyes, you sigh
To move away, your love for me dies
Oh, it dies

Spending time is even harder
Still we don't ask why
We close our eyes, we sigh
Waiting for the other to say
"goodbye, damnit say it now,
Speak your mind, open your heart,
Say it now, just say goodbye! don't be afraid
Nore am I, please please say it now!"
