When I feel blue, I think of you
'Cause you're true wherever you are Near or far, you still are my shining star
Sometimes it's mad, things get bad and I'm sad
Wherever you are there is light by my side
I feel alright

Because our love is big
Bigger than the two of us
And words can not describe
How I miss you so much

I feel love in your arms
And I feel love when I'm with you
I feel love in your eyes
Wherever you may be

You make me high I can fly, touch the sky
Wherever you are I feel free, in ecstasy, just you and me
You save my day, paved the way and you stay wherever you are
In my heart from the start, we'll never part
Because our love is big
Bigger than the two of us
And words can not describe
How I miss you so much

I feel love in your arms (in your arms)
And I feel love when I'm with you
I feel love in your eyes
Wherever you may be (wherever you may be)

(Wherever you are... I feel love)
