You're sweeter than the sweets you brought
I melt like chocolate on your palm
You're as sweet as you're touching
You're everything I'm seeing
My every thought is all about you
You're everything I fear: you're my every dream
My heart believes your every smile
My brain says I am infantile
You're as sweet as you're touching

You're everything I'm seeing
My every thought is all about you
You're everything I fear -
My every mood is all about you
You're everything I'm feeling
My every thought is spinning around you
You're everything I fear: you're my every dream
I'm liquid chocolate...
