Won't take me home, I'm sweetness to the bone
I'm silken and discreet, amiable and cheap
Meat for you to pound, to beat and smack around

Holes for you to fill with anything you will
But I won't apologize for the things that I do
I am victimized but so you are

There is nothing I've not seen, I'm bruised but I'm clean
If you're turned off by my my tracks just get up on my back
I'm prouder than you'd guess, I'm honest more or less

For I will not pretend, I'll never be your friend
And I won't apologize for the things that I do
I am victimized but so you are

And I don't apologize for the means that I choose
You're as compromised as I am abused
Love knows these lips, never kissed before

And at my fingertips are the secrets of a whore
Bring to me your lust, you're cursed and you are weak
In myself I trust, in my bed you leak
