i take one for the heartache one for they headache and two for the constant tears i take one for the blindness one for the foolishness trying to keep you here i would stop waiting, stop crying, stop reading into why you stayed away so long i would stop calling, stop writing, stop faking, stop denying you're as good as gone

but i don't know
i will do it for you
i will burn this house down
you do
i will burn us to the ground well even on weekdays even on Sunday

even in the blackest night even when you touch me i know that you don't love me and i can't make it right i would stop waiting, stop walking, stop trying to start you talking well say your own goodbyes i would stop drinking, stop feeling, break down and stop believing you might change your mind

you do

Hey! But I don't know
you do

burn us to the ground
