(Charlie Rich)

Well, I'm feeling so down today
The white clear skies're turnin' gray
And I know all it means is rain
But I think I can't stand the pain
'Cause I been through it all and found.

There are some very pretty people in this world
Some very pretty people in this world
You know pretty people don't like fightin'
And to me that's pretty good.

Well, I'm looking inside the room
Guess I see what I wanna see
And the world's childish games are old
And I'm tired of playing with gold
When I look up some friends and know.

There are some very pretty people in this world
Some very pretty people in this world
Some very pretty people in this world
You know pretty people don't like fightin'
And if you're a pretty people too
Then the world will be a better place for you...
