(Kenny O'Dell - Larry Henley)

I don't want to read the paper this morning
I don't want to hear no busy city sounds
So many things that's so much more important
They're the onloy things worth thinking about.

Why don't we go somewhere and love
It's been a long, long time
Why don't we just go somewhere and love
And lock the world outside.

Why don't we just lay down what we're doing
We don't need a reason or a rhyme
Don't take the time to stop and think about it
Cause if we talk too much then we might just change our minds.

Why don't we go somewhere and love
It's been a long, long time
Why don't we just go somewhere and love
And lock the world outside.

Why don't we go somewhere and love
It's been a long, long time
So why don't we go somewhere and love
And leave it all behind...
