Don't tell me why
I'm so near to commit a crime
When I stay alone here in front of you
I'm here

Illusion falls when you're not honest about the way you feel
I know I need only your voice

Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
(Forgive me, forgive me)
Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
(Forgive me, forgive me)

I don't know why
There's a limit to defy
With the vision of the future at my feet
I'm here

The night embrace me while
This picture simply blows me away
I feel I'll need only your voice

And I'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
believe in the light in me

And I'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
Reveal the light in me

Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
(Forgive me, forgive me)
Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
(Forgive me, forgive me)

Don't tell me why
I'm so near to commit a crime

When I stay alone here in front of you

I'm here

Illusion falls when you're not honest about the way I feel
I know I need only your voice

And I'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
Believe in the light in me

And I'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
Reveal the light in me

And I'm lonely here inside of me
Deep inside of me
I've never
Never felt myself this way before
I don't want to leave you with my tears
If you disappear
Believe in the light in me

Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
(Forgive me, forgive me)
Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
(Forgive me, forgive me)

Falling on my knees only for you
Forgive me
(Forgive me, forgive me)

Saving all my words only for you
Forgive me
(Forgive me, forgive me)
