Here today, I think I must have changed my mind
As I'm looking at things from a different side
I get up and fight off, the guilt last night

Pushing back the fear
I will be my guide no one by my side
The only road, just me, myself and I

I'm leaving alone tonight
I'm leaving the trust behind
I'm leaving alone tonight
I'm leaving it all behind

Let the journey start, I finally freed myself
From the jealousy and revenge I have felt
I got out in time and I'm moving fine

I'll live to tell the tale
I will be my guide, no one by my side
This fearless road, just me, myself and I

I'm leaving alone tonight
I'm leaving the trust behind
I'm leaving alone tonight
I'm leaving it all behind

I can't awake this, it has slowly faded
You have made me feel so understated
This is the hurt that you have knowingly created
We have now become so overrated

I'm leaving alone tonight
I'm leaving the trust behind
I'm leaving alone tonight
I'm leaving it all behind
