

Lacuna Coil "Stately Lover"

Visit "Stately Lover" on MotoLyrics.com

I just need you absolutely all the fears in your mind I just want you absolutely to sail this ship of mine

I don't know what the hell you're saying 'cause you're going blind using all the lies they told you to hurt your mind

And I can breathe now...

It's there, pretends to be a guide for you like a candle in the dark lies like a really cold breeze in the air step by step you'll lose your faith

I just need you miserably broken man come to me I just need you desperately just want to change your mind
