Mama, I will always love losers
Mama, I never will change
These young desperados who can't be tied down
Have driven me almost insane

Mama, I never pick winners
I've only myself to blame
But I'd rather gamble on a young desperado
'Cause I've always loved a good game

Why do I fall for those crazy blue eyes?
Those mavericks who won't settle down
But I never could stand the touch of a man
Who'd brand me to keep me around

Mama, please don't feel sorry
I've known what I've done from the start
Well, I chose a man I could love with my body
But none I could touch with my heart

Why do I fall for those crazy blue eyes?
Those mavericks who won't settle down
But I never could stand the touch of a man
Who'd brand me to keep me around

Why do I fall for those crazy blue eyes?
Those mavericks who won't settle down
But I never could stand the touch of a man
Who'd brand me to keep me around

And I'll live till I die believing the lie
'Cause I love those crazy blue eyes
Crazy blue eyes
