Keep your eyes on the interstate
And leave behind this mess we've made
And oh...
Silence all your mobile phones
So they don't hear us where we're going
Oh...
Don't you want to find your better side tonight?
Don't you want to find your better side tonight?

Then go
Never stop, never stop
When they call
Never thought, never thought
That we'd fall
From when we had it all
When we had it all
But we're never gonna stop when they call

Wake me up when we arrive
I'll fall asleep to moving lights
And oh...
Keep your love inside your breast
And save that picture from distress
And oh...

Don't you want to find your better side tonight?
Don't you want to find your better side tonight?

Then go
Never stop, never stop
When they call
Never thought, never thought
That we'd fall
From when we had it all,
When we had it all.
But we're never gonna stop when they call
They call
They call, oh...

Nevermind the wayward past and
Never find the seatbelt fastened and

Nevermind the wayward past at all.

Nevermind the wayward past and
Never find the seatbelt fastened and
Nevermind the wayward past at all.

Then go
Never stop, never stop
When they call
Never thought, never thought
That we'd fall
From when we had it all,
When we had it all.
But we're never gonna stop when they call
They call
They call, oh...
