I thought I knew but I wanted to say
Just a simple song about the perfect day
Well you came up and down across my mind
I know I said no more love songs, I'm sorry I lied

(Chorus)

Cuz I love to love you butter bubble I love to love
It's crazy cuz of love just may be mine and made us
We could just never know because we both gave up
I'm sorry but didn't you say it wasn't love?

I thought I loved you and the true love in me
Crazy how our yearning hearts can deceive
Nothing was real and true, according to you
Truth be told, I never had you
Truth be told, I guess I never had you

Chorus

For you, cover your ears
Hear what I have to say
Take my hand, here's your five point pen
So you can write me someday

Hard to believe that things came to an end
Who would have also thought you'd leave as a friend?
You can never lose what you didn't have true
Truth be told, I never had you

Chorus
