Well it's a mixed up picture
It's a shook up world
Full of fallen angels
Angry young men and frightened little girls
Yeah and the clock is ticking
And the danger lurks
And the times have changed
Life's gotten cheaper and love usually hurts

Come on baby
Don't give in
Think about some place down the road
Don't think about where we've been

Don't look back
Don't turn around
Don't look back
Come on baby let's blow this town
Don't look back
Don't turn to stone
Don't look back
We're pulling out of the dead zone

Now if I was a banker
Or if I was a king
Or if I was a genius
Maybe I could fix this thing
Yeah if you grow up fighting
If you grow up strong
You can have the future
Problem is the future's gone

The times got tough
And the night's so dark
But way off in the distance
I swear I can see a spark

Don't look back
Don't turn around
Don't look back
Come on baby let's blow this town

Don't look back
Don't turn to stone
Don't look back
We're pulling out of the dead zone

And there's a light on the horizon
I'm a burning wheel
Come on baby
They don't take prisoners
And they don't make deals
