Sleep child youâ€™re lost in the every orifice of your body drops
maybe your soft shell hiding your secrets sing moth no lullabies into your soft eyes.

Sleeping in silence has never felt so great.
All these butterflies carry messages
of those who broke into the leading
life of dirty deeds and we'll all
just sing it, but why?
Curious night sipping secrets
on the back of paper airplanes shoot to the sky.
As we learn to breathe this air.

Droplets of your thirsty throat
and you'll glitter your eyes.
As we sing, sing it how high.
How high.

Iâ€™d be reckless with endangerment
well its beauty that wins the most.
If aroused by the fact that your prettier
when your in bed.

All these butterflies carry messages
of those who broke into the leading
life of dirty deeds and we'll all
just sing it, but why?
Curious night sipping secrets
on the back of paper airplanes shoot to the sky.
As we learn to breathe this air.

Sleeping in silence has never felt so great.

Well instead.
Yell
