You don't hesitate to fill me up with wonder
I could wait but soon be going under
You my dear are drowning me with laughter
But what I fear I wont be smiling after I'm always going under

You wont bring me down
You wont bring me down
You wont bring me down
You're a fool with a crown

The weathers prank now pouring down for hours
My garden state a bouquet of drowning flowers
It's what I'm chasing after
I'm gonna tear it down the buildings all around me
All to the ground, the walls to the ceiling
And I'll be fucking laughing, Haha

You wont bring me down
You wont bring me down
You wont bring me down
You're a fool with a crown
