On my Plane to Manila passengers sit'n row to row
The Flight staff served the curry chicken,
When I heard the Turbin go, "Yeah!"

Out of my window was the sunset,
On the wings a funny glow,
Then my seat started rattling,
Im sure that wasn't part of the show,

So i started to dance,
Without wearing no seatbelts
So i started to dance,
Without wearing no life vest,
I started to dance..

My plane noise went down,
I heard the pilot call 'regrets',
But the people didn't panic,
They all just stared at me,

And they started to dance,
Without wearing no seatbelts,
we all started to dance,
Without wearing no life vest,
We all started to dance,
It was quiet a ride.

So i started to dance,
Without wearing no seatbelts
So i started to dance,
Without wearing no life vest,
I started to dance..
