Here we go again Under someone's skin
Making new mistakes
The break lights illuminate Accidents repeat
You can count on me Crushing you in vain
Cause I will save you You can hate me
We're so well adjusted darling It's pathetic justice
Find out where I breathe Suffocate my needs
Vandal with pro ??????
Because I will love you You won't save me
We're so well adjusted darling It's pathetic justice
It's already better than last time
I ruined another girl's life
I am the portrait of serenity and desperate need
I'll hold you until you cannot breathe
Can't breakup with you Cause you're with someone new
And his misery Cause I will save you
You will hate me They'll all be disgusted darling
It's poetic, It's pathetic justice
