"Goodbye"

I can see what's meant to be
Has happened to us two
Maybe I enjoy being screwed

But I will not be missing you
Missing all the time when you're wasted
On a couch you share with someone else
And you tell me
Don't believe
They're all lying

There's no proof
I am not insane
I want to thank you
For all the pain it's a goodbye

But how can I just write it off as feelings you denied
When you wasted all my time
Looking for your life
You weren't there
When I was here

There's no proof
But I am not insane
For all the pain it's a goodbye
For all the pain it's a goodbye
For all the pain it's a goodbye
