It's always timing that divides us at heart
She wanted something more, I wanted a new start
In a world depraved, some of us lost can still be saved
We only learn from the chances that we take

I look in your eyes as if you knew (Oh, oh, oh)
It's tough to live without you (Oh, oh, oh)
I don't have to have you as long as you are near (Oh,
oh,
oh)
I just feel better when you're here

So give me a chance

I hardly even know you, but just the same
This infatuation drags me down
I need your strength to make it thru my life
It's not like I'm asking you to be my wife

Still, I look in your eyes as if you knew (Ah, Ah, Ah)
It's tough to live without you (Ah, Ah, Ah)
I don't have to have you as long as you are near (Ah,
Ah,
Ah)
I just feel better when you're here

Don't leave me hanging on to the rope without a fight
Give me a chance, girl, what is it about him that you like?
Change my boring life, change my lonely life
Give me half a chance to be the one that was always right
