rainy day
I'm counting sheep in may woke up dreaming of the sun and the work you could have done mid-life lent

i've come here to repent in a time-lapse document meaningful as when we met through the laugh-track I'm still wailing for you mission accomplished hey man hey man i'm alive

i hope they don't mind i changed my mind i changed my mind tumble down white hills in blue background even in this dream sequence you won't explain nor confess mission unaccomplished (4x)
