how does it feel ??? we all made sure here another mile, 5 years expire attempting seemly airless time restrain everything i have confine the gun it takes so long,
so long confine my time what a town, living proof my abuse restrain everything i have before we accept truth time to go home now, i hit the wall ??? lights out, bend down now another blind truck i know there's always train restrain everything i have confine the gun it takes so long,

so long confine my time what a town, living proof my abuse restrain everything i have before we accept truth
