I will fly away disappear into air
I will fly away disappear into air
I was there in my dream you came closer and I moved away I feel so bad after a night like that
I feel so bad after a night like that

so I will disappear into air

cannot wait to see cannot wait to see you do it again with me
love has so much to say we have to find a way
love has so much to say we got to find the way

I will fly away disappear into air

walking in the sunshine looking at the palm trees talking to a stranger waiting for a phone call driving in a taxi
it's showtime

everybody is looking for the real thing it's you all the time, you all the time my mind is on you

you blew my mind away it happens every day you know that life ain't easy but I'm doing the best I can year

my mind is on you

no coke
