When you were younger
And were his lover
What did he look like?
Was he as beautiful as you?

How did it feel
When you were together?
Did you surrender?
I can't imagine it at all, no

And oh I wonder how you were
And I really wanna know about your love, your love

Do you remember (love's young dream)
Back when you were
Really really in love?
Do you remember (love's young dream)
Back when you were
Really really in love?

Can't you understand?

I don't remember
A single moment
When you were happy
I can't remember it at all
(Don't remember it at all)

You only told me
How it unfolded
All of the stories
Oh many, many, many I know
But all I really wanna know about is your love, your Love

Do you remember (love's young dream)
Back when you were
Really really in love?
Do you remember (love's young dream)
Back when you were
Really really in love?

Do you remember (love's young dream)
Back when you were
Really really in love?

I only wanna know the way that you used to be
Back when you stood together over me
And you were love's young dream

Love's young dream...
