Wild wild young men they like to have a good time

They chase too many women they drink to much wine

Going for a wild ride stomping on the gas

Walking on the wild side living way too fast

Playing in hot game they ain't never gonna win

Wild wild young men

Wild wild young men

Wild wild young men like to party down

They got money in their pocket they're gonna spread it around

They try to make a big point of acting like a fool

Hanging out in the juke joints trying to be real cool

They're bound to come to some bad end

Wild wild young men

Wild wild young men

Young girl let me tell you don't give your heart

To no wild wild young man cause he'll tear it apart

You ain't nothing but a sweet toy put your head in a spin

He's just a honky tonk cowboy a feather in the wind

Don't care about no one but his so called friends

Wild wild young men
