A Crimson Cosmos
Great cosmos
Eternal ocean
Spring forth now colder motions
Break dawn now
Break new day
Sweet silent colder changes
Lay still night
In the forest
Bring fall now bring the ever rest
Cold silence
No emotions
Feel changes through the ocean
One went to seek the loss
One went to seek the darker side of us
One went to seek the cross
Only to find a crimson cosmos
Great cosmos
Crimson ocean
Waves riding empty motions
Bring twilight
Bring new night
Now silent demon sleeping
Lay still night
For the angels
No laughter or no angers
Cold silence
No emotions
Feel changes through our ocean
One went to seek the loss
One went to seek the darker side of us
One went to seek the cross
Only to find a crimson cosmos
