

Lake Of Tears "Down The Nile"

Riders of the Nile race towards the light
Swiftly moves the golden lion

South's an eon watching, waiting to be whole
Never will the roacher tire
Winds of poisonous whispers brought to break them all
Racing riders of the Nile

Sapless seasons ending, the end of all grey
Graves and huddled in the fire
No one lingers long as fire comes their way
Racing riders of the Nile

Down the Nile, like them down the Nile

North a storm has wakened. Angry as it breathes

Molten lines are to expire
Cosmos holds the reason, cosmos holds the key
Racing riders of the Nile

Down the Nile, like them down the Nile

Riders of the Nile race towards the light
Swiftly moves the golden lion

Down the Nile, like them down the Nile
