I thought you said that you've
Never felt so right
But I just can't take the fight

So I have to know how Much longer will this
Carry on, cause you know I
I would never lie to you
(I would never)

I'm sorry but I'm done
I'm done with your games
I won't learn that way
This time, go ahead and tell
All of your friends that I am
Through with you
(With you)

And you should know
I hope this works out for you
Cause I'm still broken
From all the things we've been Through
And this is for the times we
Felt alive and you can't tell me
I'm not ready
So take a look into my eyes
And I'll take this slow

Somehow you always find your way around
Every single worthless thing
Finding every single piece of this puzzle
That's only held together with the Love that we had in our life

Well I know you want this to waste
Some things will never change and
Your life won't mean anything
This is where you cross the line
The time has come and this time is mine

I'm sorry but I'm done
I'm done with your games
I am through with you
And you should know I hope this works
Out for you, cause I'm still broken
From all the things we've been through
And this is for the times we felt alive
And you can't tell me I'm not ready
So take a look into my eyes as I let you go

I'll find a way, to let you forget me
Your on your own
Your on your own

And I want you to know I hope
This works out for you cause
I'm still broken from all
The things we've been through
This is for the times that we felt alive
Now your on your own
